Father Peter's Pilgrimage & Our Personal Prayer Intentions

In two weeks, on Sunday, October 7th, our Pastor, Father Peter, will be leaving on a pilgrimage to Jerusalem and other Holy Land locations. He will be celebrating Mass on Mount Calvary, where our Lord was crucified, as well as in our Lord's Tomb, where he was entombed after his death and from where he rose from the dead. On those two altars, Father Peter will offer to our Lord, on our behalf, all of our personal prayer intentions. It is not necessary to write our special intentions down, but some of us may wish to do that. For those who wish to do so, please use the small white recipe cards at the front entrance of our church and place them in the box provided. Father Peter will carry those hand written intentions with him and place them on the altars in the Holy Land as he offers those prayer intentions to our Lord. Please keep in your prayers, for a safe journey, the 26 people who will be travelling on this pilgrimage to the Holy Land. Thank you.

Teacher Required

We are in desperate need of a Religious Education teacher for the Year 3 program which has two boys in it. It will require one hour of your time every Sunday after the 9:30am Mass. If you can help us out, please contact Dee Dee Logan (642-4933) as soon as possible.
