Christmas Baskets

My heart is full of gratitude for each and every one of you in the loving preparation of Christmas Baskets. You all did your part in this Christmas Miracle here at Holy Trinity. To those who brought in food, money, and gifts, to the children who faithfully carried them downstairs, to the women who counted the food, to Peter McLeod for the boxes, to the Food Basket and Brenda McIntyre for providing Turkeys etc., to the packers, those who helped with ordering groceries, and delivering them, to David Lewis who typed and updated our lists, to all who in any way made this gift possible for our brothers and sisters, I want to express deepest gratitude. May you and yours have a very Blessed New Year. - Sister Nickerson
