Cindy Doyle, who has been compiling our Ministry Schedule for the last several years, has decided to step down from that position. We would like to take the opportunity to thank her for her dedication. In addition to being extremely well organized, her efforts to accommodate everyone on the schedule went above and beyond.

Diocesan Pastoral Plan - Implementation

A Priority For Action - Stewardship

- We are called to be good stewards of God's gifts.
- We strive to work collaboratively, sharing resources with integrity and accountability, ensuring sustainability.
- Stewardship is defined as the responsible use of time, talent and treasure. It is perceived as important for both the mission of the Church and the well-being of each Christian. It is meant to "affirm and promote participation in the development of vibrant communities."
- Stewardship is identified as a "significant priority" in the development of vibrant faith communities. It would seem important to develop a common understanding of what "a culture of stewardship" would be like for us as a diocese and for our parishes.
- While the objectives set out are based on an understanding and acceptance of this culture, it cannot be assumed that the values underlying them are a given.
- The main tasks set out in the objectives seem to center around defining, assessing, prioritizing, planning and promoting good stewardship.
