Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord your God that He has given you. - Deuteronomy 16.17

Merry Christmas!

I would like to wish each and every one of you a very merry Christmas! When I arrived here in September I immediately felt warmly welcomed, and this is a testimony to the close knit and welcoming community here at Holy Trinity. It has been a pleasure to serve you over the last several months, whether it be by attending our many community gatherings or just speaking with you before and after offering the Mass. I pray for each and every one of you that the joy and peace of Jesus Christ may radiate through you and make us as a community an even greater witness to Jesus and his good news of salvation in the midst of our city. Please pray for me as I continue to strive to be a dedicated servant of Christ in serving you. Let us together turn toward God our Heavenly Father that He may guide us to do His will as we begin a new year.

Father Peter
