Every man shall give as he is able, according to the blessing of the Lord your God that He has given you. - Deuteronomy 16.17

Dear brothers and sisters in the Risen Christ,

After our pilgrimage of Lent we have arrived at that feast from which springs our eternal joy as disciples of our Lord Jesus Christ, the great feast of Easter where in His resurrection our Lord's triumph over death is fulfilled and his unending life shared with those who faithfully place their hope in Him. In this Extraordinary Jubilee Year for Mercy declared by our Holy Father Pope Francis, we are called to be especially mindful that it was God's great desire to show forth His mercy that He sent his only begotten Son, our Lord Jesus Christ to be born of the Blessed Virgin Mary, to suffer and die for our sins only to rise again on that blessed first Easter. The work of Jesus Christ accomplished by his birth, death, and resurrection is the work of the mercy of God. How do we respond to that mercy? What are we as servants of Jesus to do after having been given this incredible gift? We act as those first disciples did and spread the good news of Jesus Christ so that His saving mercy and love may be made known to all in our city of Saint John, and indeed to the ends of the earth, that more and more souls may be won for Christ. Our Lord Jesus Christ by his saving work has freed us from the shackles of sin and death. Let us proclaim God's merciful and gracious gift of salvation won for us this Easter day now and always. Alleluia!

Yours in Christ Jesus Firstborn from the Dead,

Father Peter
