SATURDAY  SOUP | EVERY WEEK AFTER 4PM MASS

Dear Holy Trinity Family,

Christmas has come and gone, and before January ends, on behalf of the Team and myself, I want to say what a blessing you are, and have been, to our neighbors and others who would not have had a Christmas if it weren't for you. Your hearts were open to what God had desired for our community, and you responded generously without question, not knowing but trusting that your donation would be used for the needs of others. Having provided for nearly 60 families in various ways you must know that you gave without questioning, in trust and with a full heart. God's desire is that we look after God's poor and Pope Francis says "We are a poor church looking after the poor." One of the teenagers at school was talking to others and they all agreed that we need to help the needy at Christmas. So this young boy said "We could help Holy Trinity Parish". WOW. They had a bake sale and raised $91, came to my house with his Mom to present it to me and we had our picture taken. It doesn't get any better than that. Our youth are learning a valuable lesson. Well done.

Blessings and Love,
Sister Nickerson and team
